Universal and semi-custom car covers had been around quite a while before Covercraft identified the market potential, and began catering to enthusiasts who wanted a more "perfect fit" for the cover being used to protect their pride and joy. Back in the 60's (in the last millennium), the most popular covers we made were for British and European sports cars and they were called "mittens".

The Institute puts the booster seats it tests into four categories: BEST BETs are seats that provide good belt fit for typical 4 to 8 year-olds in almost any car, minivan or SUV.; GOOD BETs provide acceptable belt fit in most cars, minivans or SUVs.; Not recommended don't provide good belt fit and should be avoided. There are currently no boosters on the market with this designation.
